

Jerry Light Refiners

Jerry Light, owner of the town's finest jewelry store was alarmed when a new jewelry store, much like his own, opened in the storefront to the left of him. A huge sign was installed, reading "BEST DEALS IN TOWN".

Mr. Light was troubled a second time when another competitor leased the building on his right, and erected a much larger sign, reading "LOWEST PRICES IN TOWN".

At this point Jerry was really depressed, however, he came up with an idea. He put the biggest sign of all over his own shop.....it read "MAIN ENTRANCE".

No, unlike you, I really don't have a jewelry shop but I DO have lots of good ideas.

I just wanted to take this time to thank for your past business and let you know I'm still out here buying gold in about any form; sweeps, buffings, karat gold, filings and batteries too! If there is anything I can do for you, please don't hesitate to give me a call.

P.S. If I DID own a jewelry store, I'd sell all my scrap to me!
